STIPULATATION AND PROPOSED ORDER AMENDING PROPOSED SETTLEMENT
NOTICE FILED AS EXHIBIT 1 TO PRELIMINARY APPROVAL MOTION
Case No. C-05-2394 CRB

1       In light of recent events involving class counsel, Milberg LLP, the parties hereby agree
 2 and request that certain language included in the Notice of Proposed Settlement of Class Action,
 3 Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Settlement Fairness Hearing ("Settlement Notice"), attached as 4 Exhibit 1 to the Proposed Preliminary Order for Notice and Hearing in Connection with 5 Settlement Proceedings, filed with the Court on June 6, 2008, be modified on page 12, footnote
 6 2, to state as follows:

7

8       Milberg LLP was formerly known as Milberg Weiss Bershad & Schulman
 9 LLP. On May 18, 2006 in the United States District Court for the Central District
 10 of California (Los Angeles), Milberg Weiss Bershad & Schulman LLP and two of 11 its partners, David J. Bershad and Steven G. Schulman, and others, were named as 12 defendants in an indictment. On September 20, 2007 a superseding indictment
 13 was filed which added Melvyn I. Weiss as a named defendant. The indictments
 14 alleged that, in certain cases identified in the indictments, portions of attorneys'
 15 fees awarded to the firm were improperly shared with certain plaintiffs. ~~Milberg~~
 16 ~~LLP has pleaded not guilty.~~ The three partners named in the indictments have left 17 the firm and have ~~agreed to plead~~pledaded guilty to a charge of conspiracy. The 18 indictments do not refer to this action, and make no allegations of any impropriety
 19 in the conduct of this action.

20

21       On June 16, 2008, Milberg LLP entered into a non-prosecution case 22 disposition agreement with the government providing for dismissal of the 23 indictment against Milberg LLP. The government determined that the former 24 senior partners who had engaged in misconduct "took affirmative steps to conceal
 25 their illegal activities from other partners, associates, and employees of the Firm."
 26 The government determined that dismissal of the indictment and non-prosecution
 27 of Milberg LLP were appropriate in light of its belief that "no attorney currently a 28 partner or associate with Milberg LLP is criminally culpable" with respect to 29 conduct charged in the indictment.
